

Attack on Hindi-speaking teacher's house

Comments 0

editor 22 August 2007 13100 views

Guwahati: The string of attacks on Hindi-speaking people refuse to die down as some miscreants hurled a grenade at the home of a Hindi speaking family at Hojai on Wednesday wee hours.

According to information, some unidentified miscreants lobbed a grenade into the compound of school teacher Ranjit Prasad Gupta's residence at Natun Bazar, Pukhuripur at Hojai town. No one was there in the in the backyard where the grenade burst; only a septic tank was damaged under the impact of the blast.

Top ranked police officials reached the spot on Wednesday morning and started investigation.

Police have rounded up two people, including a surrendered ULFA cadre for investigation.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

When Justice-for-Zubeen campaign gains momentum

Assam Women Clinch National Tchoukball Championship

গগন গুপ্তা গগন গগন গগন গগন (3)

Buffy to distribute sanitary napkins in Nagaland.

Heart awareness rally in the city
