There is report of a crackdown by Bangladesh security agencies on Indian insurgent camps.

According to information, Bangladesh security agencies had raided camps of the Kanglei Yawol Kanna Lup (KYKL) and United National Liberation Front (UNLF) located at the Chittagong Hill Tracts a few weeks ago. These revelations have come up during interrogation of the People's Liberation Army militants arrested recently.

Sources say a few years ago the PLA had about 15,00 cadre in the Khoya camp in the CHT, but their number has been reduced to 50 now. As PLA had maintained 'good relations' with 'certain Bangladesh agencies', they still had a camp in the area. The cadres are Vinod, Narayan Singh, Mema. They were picked up near Beltoli in Meghalaya's East Khasi Hills district on Tuesday.
