NEW DELHI: Finally Matang Sinh procured bail three years after CBI arrested the former Union minister in the chit fund scam.

A bench of the Calcutta High Court on Monday granted conditional bail to Sinh asking him to appear before the CBI officials once in a week.

The media baron would be able to leave Kolkata only with prior permission from the high court.

The country's premier investigation agency caught Sinh on January 31, 2015 after interrogating him for a couple of hours in Kolkata in connection.
