Tinsukia: A group of around 30 youths unleashed no less terror in Tinsukia as they took out a bike rally in the town on Monday.

Local residents say the youths who claiming to have been representing Bajrang Dal took out the bike rally with sharp weapons triggering sharp reaction across the town.

According to the policemen, who prevented the youths from proceeding and arrested 5 youths, the district administration was not in the know of such rally.

But Bajrang Dal leaders have disowned the claim of the rally.
