The Centre has yet to confirm the miscreants behind the bloodbath in Balajan where 14 people were killed and 20 others sustained injury in firing and bombing at an open market in Kokrajhar last week.

In a statement on Monday, Union home minister Rajnath Singh revealed that investigations were going on to trace down the identity of the perpetrators. Singh said, "the identity of the extremist organisation is yet to be known."

According to him, security forces recovered an AK-47 rifle, two magazines and other some explosives from the spot. He further said the gunmen came in army uniform before they attacked the common people with firing and bombing.

Singh said, "at least 14 people were killed, including eight Bodo people, a woman and a boy. Nineteen other people were seriously injured."
