Hundreds of employees from Assam Gramin Vikash Bank(AGVB) staged dharna with banner, placards in front of Regional Office of AGVB at Kokrajhar along the RNB Road today in Kokrajhar demanding solutions of various grievances including regularisation of jobs, pension and retrieval benefits to the employees.

The employees union members from five districts Goalpara, Bongaigaon, Chirang, Dhubri and Kokrajhar participated the dharna and demanded early solutions of employees and was dharna was organised under the banner of Joint Forum Gramin Bank Union to press the government for meeting of solutions of various grievances of the employees as employees of the banks have been deprived from various scopes and benefitted allotted from RRBs.

The bank employees shouted slogans demanding early solution of employees who are working in the banks with cheap salaries, making proper facilities to the employees, regularise the sanitation/PTS posts.

Kausik Saha, secretary of regional union of Joint Forum Gramin Bank Union demanded that employees of the AGVB have been deprived from regularization since long years and urged the govt to solve problems of the employees. He said that government and management are not interested to solve problems of the employees.

The union has also warned for vigorous agitation if their demands are not met early.
