

Beef controversy forces closure of M'laya BJP office

Comments 0

SN Sangma 7 June 2017 6184 views

In a major setback for BJP in Meghalaya seven months ahead of the assembly, the party office in North Garo Hills district refused to open after two functionaries of the party pulled out within a week following the beef controversy.

Party leaders are believed to have conveyed the crisis to the central leadership suggesting a slew of urgent measures to refurbish the image of the party in the poll bound state.

“We want the central leadership take a concrete and urgent step to deal with the crisis since Congress is striking maximum advantage. We are waiting for the central leadership to step in,” said a party leader after coming out of the close door meeting.

“Nobody is coming to the office after Bachu Marak resigned. We came to the office when Barnard Marak and Bachu Marak were there. Now who will come,” said the party workers who are walking to and fro near the office.

Another party worker said,” the Marak duo pulled huge people to the party. They had huge support. Their exit would be a huge setback for the party.”

This Facebook post is no longer available. It may have been removed or the privacy settings of the post may have changed.

Help Center

SN Sangma

BY SN SANGMA

PUCL Tribunal Report on Manipur Draws Support and Criticism

Faculty development on Art of Living at RIST

GNLA diktat muffles I Day in M'laya

Northeast Women Peace Congregation concludes

ON THIS DAY

CDC of Nazira conducts inspection of Fair Price Shops

Rongmei Community Celebrates 7th Cultural and Freshers' Meet in Guwahati

Congress-AIUDF deal finalized

Manas National Park opens for visitors

Link roads inaugurated in Kapahera

RELATED

Indigenous Peoples' Group Marks Foundation Day in Mariani

People's consultation on agroecology, climate adaptation concludes in Jorhat

USTM concludes workshop on academic writing and scholarly publishing

'Grit & Glory' released in Guwahati, highlights RSS work in Northeast

Young poet Avinash Bastabha's 'The Tale of Termites' unveiled in Jorhat
