Assam chief minister Tarun Gogoi seems to have stepped up attacks on the NDA government at the Centre taking up one after another issues confronting the country. Now he accused the BJP-led government of indulging in beef politics to divert the mass attention from the development and employment related issues.

This is Gogoi's second attack on the Centre on Monday hours after he took on the Narendra Modi government for price rise which has dampened the festivity across the country.

Beef politics has been indulged in by BJP to divert people's attention from development and employment related issues.
