Thousands of people hit the streets in Itanagar on Monday alleging the unilateral claim of the Chinese authority over some places in Arunachal Pradesh.

Led by the All Arunachal Pradesh Students Union \(AAPSU\), the protesters thronged the city at 11 in the morning and took out the street procession in protest against the illegitimate by the neighbouring country.

Holding placards and banners in their hands, the protestors shouted vande- mataram, Bharat mata ki jay, we are Indians, Haye-haye Chinese government etc. and burnt the effigy of Chinese President Xi Jinping.

In his brief address, AAPSU president Hawa Bagnag said, "Arunachal is integral part of India, this frontier state was never been part of China nor we want to be rule under China, we are Indian and we will remain Indian."

He slammed China for interfering in the internal matters of India saying that the Arunachalee are ready for any consequence to fight for the Indian state. “We will never fade an inch of our land to china. Though our facial structure are same but there are other countries like Korea, Japan, Indonesia etc who have mongoloid feature but they are not Chinese nor are we,” he said..

He maintained that nobody writes or speaks in Chinese in Arunachal. “We are hardcore Indian and hardcore Hindi speaking people of India.

Further concerning on poor developmental activities in border areas,” said the AAPSU President who lamented that state & central government should ponder up developing the border.

AAPSU general secretary Tobom Dai slammed the Chinese authority for interfering in internal matters of India and illegally claiming Arunachal as their territory.
