The Centre on Wednesday claimed to have given a big blow to Maoists trying to set up bases in Assam. Hours after the encounter at Sadiya, Union home secretary RK Singh told reporters in Delhi that the encounter would certainly halt their operations and hamper their activities in a big way. Union Home Minister P Chidambaram recently said that Assam emerged as the new theatre of Maoist activity and there were also inputs about links of CPI (Maoist) with insurgent groups in Manipur and Arunachal Pradesh.
