The ministerial panel set up to deal with agitation against the Lower Subansiri hydel power project submitted its report before chief minister Tarun Gogoi on Wednesday.

Led by the panel chairman and power minister Pradyut Bordoloi, the group of minister called on Gogoi at his official residence in Koinadhora where the final report was submitted.

The panel was set up at the height of the simmering protest against the NHPC-owned big dam at Gerukamukh along Assam-Arunachal Pradesh border.
