To commemorate the 2008 blast in state (/taxonomy/term/2332), the Bikers' Association, Raha and AASU, Raha unit on Friday evening organized a homage giving programme at the Raha chariali by lighting earthen lamps. Members of both the organizations lit earthen lamps and observed a minute silence praying for the departed souls.

The Bikers' Association simultaneously launched (/taxonomy/term/1637) a mass signature campaign against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the menace (/taxonomy/term/2371) of terrorism (/taxonomy/term/1812).

Talking to Assam Times, the organisations said "We want justice for those who were killed in the blast and we want peace in the region,"

"All of us today, a black day in the history of modern-day Assam, came together here to pay tribute to those who were killed in the blast of 2008. It was a sad day and black day for all of us," said a resident of the town who joined the occasion spontaneously.
