BJP on Tuesday came down heavily on the government for the escalating violence in Kokrajhar, Chirang and Dhubri district where 25 people were killed and 500 families have been displaced. Addressing a press conference in New Delhi on Tuesday, party spokesman Nirmala Sitharaman said that the violence is communal and that the prime minister should immediately issue a statement. She further called it is a problem of illegal migrants. According to her, "Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi was trying hard not to call the violence communal but we know it is so as informed by our team visiting the state,". Meanwhile, a special home ministry team will be rushed to Assam to assess the security situation.
