

Book released: Elephant Care

Comments 0

editor 2 April 2011 11461 views

“Elephant Care” a much needed book on elephant healthcare and management authored by internationally acclaimed elephant expert from the state Dr Kushal Konwar Sarma, Professor, College of Veterinary Science, Khanapara, Assam Agricultural University was released today at a glittering function held in the college auditorium. Mr Suresh Chand, Principal Chief Conservator of Forest (Wildlife) and Chief Wildlife Warden, Chief Guest of the function released the book and highlighted the need of such a book for guidance of the new generation of elephant veterinarians and management workers. Prof. P. C Bhattacharjee, noted environmentalist and retd. Professor of Guwahati University also hailed the contribution of the author on elephant literature. The function was held for the formal inauguration of an eleven days training programme of veterinary university teachers on elephant management being held in the state named “Training of Trainers on the Advancement of Elephant Healthcare and Managerial Practices” has been attended by twenty participants coming from various regions of India and other elephant range countries of Asia. Dr K. K Sarma is the director of the course funded by the Directorate of Project Elephant, MoEF, New Delhi and being organized in collaboration with Aaranyak.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

BJP leader likely to surrender

Congress demands CM's resignation

Durga puja ends in Kokrajhar

Award for BVFCL Daily Bazaar Puja

Dalai Lama to visit Manipur on October 17
