Amid the bitter border row between Assam and Arunachal Pradesh that is burning Charaipung, Nagaland chief minister Neiphu Rio said border row with Assam is irreversible. Talking to reporters in Doyang in Golaghat district of Assam on Monday, Rio said over the years, the Assam government has not been sincere to resolve the border row amicably. He said even Dispur has been failing to produce relevant documents in the Supreme Court to substantiate any allegations of invasion by Arunachal Pradesh, Nagaland or Meghalaya.
