Kokrajhar: Bodoland Territorial Council (BTC) chief Hagrama Mohilary said that BPF-BJP alliance will continue in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections in the state. BPF will put its candidate in Kokrajhar Lok Sabha seat only and extending support to the alliance partners in other seats of the state.

Mohilary informed that BPF is fully prepared to contest the election in Kokrajhar only and party's candidate will be winning with people's support. BPF party is supporting alliance partner BJP in other seats.

He has claimed that if alliance comes in between BJP, BPF, AGP in the state, then BPF is getting one, AGP getting 2, and BJP getting 10 seats in the elections. Congress may get one seat in the state.
