At a time when preparations are afoot to be unified in between BPF and BPPF on Sunday at Dotma Tulungapuri in Kokrajhar, the BJP and AIUDF parties have termed that the unification move is a drama one, besides it would not be benefitted to the party in the political ground in the Bodo belt as BPPF itself lost people's mandate.

Former BTC executive member and BJP leader Mono Kumar Brahma has termed that the unification move in between BPF and BPPF party is a tactic of political drama to gain people's support. It is nothing, but a political scenery only among public, Brahma slamming Rabiram Narzary, president of BPPF said that Rabiram is joining the BPF party for his personal interest, not for common masses. Rabiram's joining in BPF will badly impact in days to come as he has lost people's mandate in last elections, Mono said.

Brahma also told that decade ago, both Rabiram Narzary and Hagrama Mohilary were main creator of separate parties and fratricidal incidents in the region, but now they are going to shake hands each other to show their political lobbies, keeping common publics on dark. The BPF could not be gained their party strength and status, though party is going to unified ahead Assam Assembly elections. It is a political motive and hiding agenda of the leaders of BPF party, he alleged.

BTC MCLA and AIUDF leader Abdul Ali Mondal, expressing his reaction to the unification move in between Hagrama Mohilary and Rabiram Narzary, is only a step to show their aspects. He said that presently Rabiram has lost his public support, so he going to join with BPF party. BPF will face tough after joining the party as because common masses will turn other parties. Mondal also claimed that his party will gain its party based among common citizens in the ensuing assembly elections.
