

BPF burns copies of vernacular newspaper

Comments 0

Hantigiri Narzary 8 January 2016 Updated 8 Jan 9434 views

BPF, ruling party in BTAD burnt copies of the Asomiya Pratidin, a vernacular daily newspaper of Assam, in protest against reporting of news brought out in today's issue about rift in between BPF President Hagrama Mohilary and former minister and MLA Chandan Brahma.

BPF activist and supporters shouted slogans against daily newspaper and burnt the copies of daily newspaper at JD Road near Bajwi Hotel in Kokrajhar and Bazar Road at Salakati today. The party has slammed the daily newspaper for unwanted reports about rift in between Mohilary and Brahma, which was very unwanted remarks for the party. Party has claimed that party was not rift in its position and working in a unity strength.

Doneswar Goyary, BTC executive member and party leader said that party was not in rift as reports published in the daily newspaper. 'The newspaper has been reported baseless news which is not unwanted and such kind of information was not raised within party', he said. BTC executive member Rajib Brahma and party, was also present in the protest. In separate protest programme at Salakati, party activist and supporters strongly reacted to the news carried out relating rift in between Mohilary and Brahma, has warned to move for legal aid if such unwanted reporting continue.

Brahma, reacting to the reports said that no such rift was arisen within party and party was working to the tune of unity and integrity. He has termed that the news published against him and party was totally baseless and had a deep conspiracy penetrated on zealous of party development and interest in the region ahead assembly election in the state.

Hantigiri Narzary

Reporting from Kokrajhar

BY HANTIGIRI NARZARY

Illegal activities reported inside Sikhna Jwhlwao National Park

Bodoland University observes International Primate Day

Awareness programme on human-elephant conflict held near Raimona National Park

NTPC Bongaigaon Builds ₹1.8-Crore Education Facilities at VKV Balijan

National Boro Christian Council Condemns Violence in Manipur, Calls for Harmony

ON THIS DAY

Arms recovered

Essay competition for students

Programme on pursuing career after graduation held at Doomdooma

Daoharu Mungkhlong trophy match from Oct 1

BTC special session discusses development

RELATED

ABSU burns copies of 'Hamkoshar Parishista' over Bodo script issue

Tension persists in Bihubar after former paramilitary personnel's killing

A heartfelt tribute to poet Anis Uz Zaman

Tension grips Bihubar after youth social worker's killing

New Delhi BRICS Summit: Hoping for a Permanent Indian Presence in the UNSC

