BTC Chief Hagrama Mohilary, who is also BPF Supremo said that BPF candidate Chandan Brahma will win the election scheduled on April 24 with huge support of voters from irrespective caste and community.

Mohilary while addressing in a Helicopter election campaigning for party candidate Chandan Brahma for No.5 Kokrajhar Lok Sabha constituency at Cithila in Kokrajhar on Thursday said there is no any candidate to defeat party's candidate Brahma in Kokrajhar as his winning is cent percent cleared. He said his party is working for all round development of the region and would work more for bringing healthy development. He has slammed the Naba Kumar Sarania @ Hira Sarania, independents backed by Janagostiya Aikhya Mancha and Urkhao Gwra Brahma, backed by ABSU and its allied organizations have no any influence among society as well as politics. He said Sarania is belonged to ULFA organization and can't work for human development. He has appealed all sections of community to vote for party candidate Brahma and make a way to pave way well established society in the region.

Meanwhile, independent candidates Urkhao Gwra Brahma, Naba Kumar Sarania, Sansuma Khunggur Bwiswmuthiary and AITMC candidate Rajit Sekhar Mooshahary have also campaigned for their candidature in various places in Sorbhog, Bhabanipur, Baksa and Chirang district. Brahma said that this time people want change and hence people will vote for him.
