The Bodo Sahitya Sabha will stage a 2-hour dharna Jantar Mantar in New Delhi on April 12 alleging non fulfillment of their demands related to Bodo-medium schools.

The Bodo literary body will also burn copies of "The Assam Venture Educational Institutions (Provincialization of Services) Act, 2011" and "Assam Non-government Educational Institution (Management & Regulation) Act 2006" saying that the two Acts have loopholes which are going against Bodo-medium institutions.

BSS has given an ultimatum to the state government to make public the modalities for setting up a separate directorate for Bodo-medium schools, along with Cabinet approval and amendment to 'Assam Venture Educational Institutions (Provincialization of Services) Act, 2011' and 'Assam Non-government Educational Institution (Management & Regulation) Act, 2006'. But there is no response till date.
