More than 400 students are believed to have fled from Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Maharashtra fearing attack in the time of BTAD riot. According to reports, 400 Bodo, Koch-Rajbongshi and Adivasi youths have come back to Kokrajhar district after being humiliated by some miscreants in those States following the clash in BTAD. This is apart from 30 Bodo students who have come back to Chirang in the past few days fearing attack in these states.

AASU and ABSU leaders have expressed concern over the exodus of students and urged the government to provide them security in those states.
