The trouble mongers in BTAD will be identified in a day or two. This was what Rockybul Hussain told reporters in Kokrajhar on Sunday.

Addressing a press conference on Sunday, the forest minister said that the investigation is moving in right direction on the basis of the FIRs and eyewitness. He further said that the license holders would be allowed to procure arms in the BTAD areas.

He said he had visited Balapara village and spoke with the affected villagers about incident. He said the government is monitoring the situation in the region and no more incidents reported in the last 24 hours. Hussain appealed all concerned not to speak about mudslinging statement so that peace restores in the region.

On the other hand, the government is in a process to set up 25 refugee camps in the entire area.
