A lower court in Barpeta on Tuesday remanded 14 persons to 3 days police custody three days after police picked up them from Baksa and Kokrajhar in connection with BTAD violence.

Seven of these people arrested were forest guards. Amid tight security, police produced them before the Barpeta Chief Judicial Magistrate who sent all of them to police remand for three days.

They would be produced before the court on Thursday again.

Policemen found it quite difficult to bring them to the court in the face of an irate mob who proceed to attack them in the afternoon.
