

Bus accident in Dhubri: 26 died, 45 injured

Comments 0

editor 14 October 2008 15237 views

At least 26 people, mostly labourers engaged in brick kiln, were killed, 45 others have been injured, some of them seriously when a bus collided its head on a stranded truck at Beltoli Chariali under Golokganj police station in Dhubri district on Monday midnight.

According to information, accident took place when a bus Usha bearing No AS17/7152 bound for Singimari in Hajo collided its head on a stranded tuck No AS21/5027 on the National Highway 31. Fifteen people including 6 children died on the spot while eight others succumbed to injuries on the way to hospital.

Immediately after the incident local residents and police came to the rescue of the injured people and rushed them to the nearest hospital.

All the 16 people died on the spot while the others died on the way to hospital. Twenty three of these deceased have been identified. More than ten people now undergoing treatment are stated to be in critical condition. Details are awaited.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Hagrama tsunami in BTAD, UPPL, BJP at a loss

Golok Samman 2023 Announced: Four Young Honourees Recognized

Lokdarshan: A Vibrant Folk Dance Extravaganza in Udalguri

Manas National Park Reopens for Visitors, World Tourism Day Celebration Planned

Webinar held: women entrepreneurship and women empowerment

