Former Lok Sabha MP Sansuma Khunggur Bwiswmuthiary, who is also the President of World Confederation of Mongoloid People (WCMP) on Thursday expressed his hope that the BJP led NDA government at the centre will play an effective role for solving the problems of the people of Assam.

Bwiswmuthiary, in a press release said that he was quite hopeful that the NDA government will leave no stone unturned to bring about amicable and lasting solutions to all the national problems with special mention to the issues relating to unchecked infiltration of illegal Bangladeshi immigrants in to Assam and other North-Eastern states and foreign national issue, militancy and insurgency problems / menaces including the NDFBs, ULFA and many other outfits, burning Bodoland statehood imbroglio and the regional autonomic questions raised by different deserving indigenous groups of people of the northeast(NE) region, flood and erosion menace and acute un-employment problems. He also urged the new government for industrialization in the NE Region. He said the question relating to the urgent need of special law to preserve and protect the Rights and Privileges of all indigenous people of the entire NE states in respect to their rights to political, economic, safeguard and security and their land and territories.

In view of the above he urged upon the Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi and Home Minister Rajnath Singh to take appropriate steps to help and address the long pending genuine issues and problems with all seriousness and positivity taking into account the magnitude and the seriousness of the problems and issues as warranted by the time and situation.

Bwiswmuthiary expressed his gratitude to Modi and the BJP on the historic landslide victory in the recently concluded general elections to the 16th Lok Sabha and also extends his congratulation to Modi as the 16th Prime Minister of India.
