

Campaign against Piracy

Comments 0

Ranjan K Baruah 26 March 2008 9526 views

Swargojyoti Motion Pictures is going to start a campaign against piracy in the state. The start up programme will be held at the Guwahati Press Club on 27th March at 11am. According to a press statement issued by the organizers the campaign shall sensitize people against piracy in all over Assam and later on it will be extended to other parts of the North East. Different personalities associated with the entertainment industry will participate in the programme including producers and marketing agencies. So far there have been such campaigns organized by different organizations but piracy is still going on in all over the state. The organizers have requested the interested person to attend the programme and become a part of the campaign to stop piracy and promote entrepreneurs associated with the film and entertainment industry.

Ranjan K Baruah

Citizen Journalist and activist.

BY RANJAN K BARUAH

Lakes: The lifeblood of our planet

Humanitarian Workers Stand Up for People in Need

Different Contexts, Common Aspirations

MSME Day: Innovation key to building resilient businesses

International Day Against Drug Abuse: Innovation key to combating illicit drugs

ON THIS DAY

Hagrama tsunami in BTAD, UPPL, BJP at a loss

Golok Samman 2023 Announced: Four Young Honourees Recognized

Lokdarshan: A Vibrant Folk Dance Extravaganza in Udalguri

Manas National Park Reopens for Visitors, World Tourism Day Celebration Planned

Webinar held: women entrepreneurship and women empowerment
