CBI is believed to have gathered more and more stunning revelations on the Saradha scam when the investigation team grilled three employees of the chit fund on Tuesday.

The CBI team set up to probe the scam questioned the trio at its Kolkata based office for several hours. They would be arrested if required.

According to sources, their statements have further confirmed Sudipto Sen's alleged deal with three political leaders apart from a channel head, former senior police officer and a circle of businessmen.

It is expected to help the CBI question "some influential persons" very soon.

CBI has already grilled singer Sadananda Gogoi, businessman Rajesh Bajaj and Monoranjana Singh for their alleged links with the Saradha Group chief. But their statements were not sufficient and that more revelations were required to unearth the truth.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
