The Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) has invited applications from eligible candidates for the award of scholarships.

According to information, the award includes schemes like merit scholarship for single girl child for class twelfth, for professional studies and for under graduate studies for single girl child.

A CBSE official said the eligibility criteria for each scheme is available on Board website-- www.cbse.nic.in. The Board has also sought applications for renewal of schemes awarded last year by August 31.
