GUWAHATI: The special operation unit of Dibrugarh police set up to probe the APSC scam is filing its next charge sheet on Thursday.

Led by senior police officer SS Panesar, the police team is well prepared to file the charge sheet before the local special court by noon.

Sources told Assam Times that all 25 accused ACS, APS and allied service officers are being chargesheeted under the various stringent sections of laws.

The investigators have enclosed with the charge sheet the details of the forensic report of their handwritings and answer scripts. The police arrested all of the accused from November last year to be interrogated in their custody before being sent to judicial custody.
