The Centre on Thursday said that ULFA 'general secretary' Anup Chetia would soon be brought back from Bangladesh. The surprising move came to light when group's 'chairman' Arabinda Rajkhowa held talks with the Centre claimed on Thursday. Talking to reporters, Rajkhowa said a positive decision on Chetia is expected soon and Chetia would take part in future rounds of talks.

Union Home Secretary RK Singh told reporters that the issue was still pending in courts in Dhaka and New Delhi would deal it with legally. He said that the dialogue was held in a cordial manner and significant progress has been made in it. The talks held point-by-point discussions with the government on group's charter of demands and a "political solution" to over the insurgency problem.
