A Citizen's Meet has been organized at Guwahati Press Club on April 10, 2012 to discuss about the recent incidents relating to Tibetan issues. Organized by Journalists Forum Assam (JFA), the meeting will start at 3 pm. It is to be mentioned that Tibetan issue has emerged as an important topic for discussion in northeast India recently.

Tibet is an important border State (province) for northeast India in respect to its internal and external security. More over hundred thousands of Tibetan refugees are taking shelter in India (also in the Northeast), whom we should support on moral grounds. The Citizen's Meet is expected to resolve some ways to support the ongoing freedom struggle by the Tibetan people around the globe, stated a JFA statement.
