Shaken by Akhil Gogoi's revelation of Himanta Biswa Sarma's criminal background, chief minister Tarun Gogoi on Sunday refused to involve in this tussle. Talking to reporters on Sunday, Gogoi this is for Himanta Biswa Sarma to deal with these revelations and that it's his purely personal matter. "Himanta should go to the court if he wants so. How can I meddle in this tussle between the two," he said. Gogoi said he would order CID to probe as to how the sensational files were remaining clueless for so many years.

Meanwhile, the health minister is all set to produce the original documents of court acquitting him in the 'baseless' criminal charges.

On the other hand, RTI activist will produce some more sensational documents pertaining to Himanta Biswa Sarma's criminal background. These include Congress leader Manobendra Sarma's murder where he is alleged to have been involved.
