Chief minister Tarun Gogoi faced no less ire of the people for alliance with BPF who has been allegedly fomenting trouble in BTAD during his day long visit to the trouble torn areas on Monday.

Gogoi had listened to the victims' family member when he visited them door to door in Balapara area in Gossaigaon subdivision.

The chief minister visited five family members a couple of days after the miscreants killed their members.

Apart from financial assistance and steps for early rehabilitation, the chief minister openly announced exemplary punishment to the perpetrators.

“Let the probe indict the perpetrators. I won’t spare anybody,” a visibly angry Gogoi told reporters after he talked to the family members.

A few victims’ family members on camera alleged BPF’s involvement in the carnage where over 50 people were believed to have lost his life.
