Chief minister Tarun Gogoi on Sunday dared Dinesh Prasad Goala to make public the copy of a resolution brought against him in the last special CLP meeting in Dispur.

Gogoi made the open challenge a day after the former minister openly revolted against the chief minister alleging simmering discontent within the party legislators.

But Gogoi told the reporters that the special CLP meeting never brought any no-trust motion against him. The CLP meet on October 19 in Dispur resolved to mend the dissidence and pledged to unitedly fight the upcoming general polls to ensure 12 seats out of 14.
