The Assam BJP leaders have said only the Congress party was politicizing the current situation in the state and not the other parties. Addressing a press conference on Sunday, senior BJP leader Barki Prasad Telenga reacted sharply to the recent allegation of a senior minister that BJP was trying to create a Beltola-like situation only for political mileage. Telenga has said the BJP has exploited the present situation in Assam and alleged the ruling party was violating the model code of conduct in the run up to the panchayat elections.
