Guwahati: After a brainstorming session in Guwahati on Thursday Congress, CPI, CPM have agreed to fight unitedly to keep BJP at bay in the 2021 assembly polls.

The leaders of all the three parties to hit the streets alleging corruption, utter lawlessness across the state. Convened at the hotel Gateway Grandeur, the meeting further discussed the preparation of a common minimum programme to sort out the issues.

Later Congress president Ripun Bora said that only a united fight can upset BJP in the upcoming assembly polls. CPI, CPM leaders also said that Congress should lead the alliance and called upon the like-minded parties and organizations to join the fight against BJP.
