With the panchayat poll is just a couple of months away, Along with rest of the state, the major opposition party Congress has started preparing blueprints in Batadrava legislative Constituency which falls under both Nagaon and Morigaon district to outsmart in upcoming election. Hence, the both Batadrava and Dolonghat block unit of Congress on wednesday organised two separate party workers meet in Dhing and Dolonghat respectively.

Both the meets were graced by Member of Parliament, Kaliabor Gaurav Gogoi, Newly elected Assam Pradesh Congress Committee secretary Sibamoni Bora, former MLA Gautam Borah and several top most leaders of APCC, Youth congress and NSUI.

Addressing the workers in Dolonghat, MP Gaurav Gogoi strongly criticised the centre and State BJP government for their failures in keeping Election promises. "The Congress party is ready to contest in Panchayat elections with double spirit. We have already prepared our blueprints with newly elected Brigades in APCC", Gogoi told reporters after the meeting.
