The ruling BPF party has termed that congress has lost its mass based in BTC as party could not open any account in recent concluded council election.

Over 500 Congressmen including Assembly segment president, block mondal leaders and gaonburahs joined the BPF party at a programme held at Chitila community hall under Kokrajhar West LAC in Kokrajhar district on Sunday.

Former MLA and senior BPF leader told that Congressmen joined the BPF party keeping new expectation of social upliftment as BPF party retained the council for third consecutive terms. He said that congress has lost public supports and their position would be worse in coming days as his party is gaining mass supports in the state.

A congressman who joined in BPF today said that they joined the party as congress has not been taking any step come forward for social integration. He said that BPF has a capacity to bring integration among various communitites in the region.

The party felicitated newly joined members with Phulam gamocha and bunch of flowers.

Among others, Pradip Kumar Brahma, MLA, BTC executive members Rajib Brahma, Doneswar Goyary were present on the programme.
