Guwahati: COVID19 might have killed 50 people in Assam apart from infecting 20,000 others.

But the killer virus gives field day for a group of contractors, suppliers, and government officers.

This was what Assam Public Works has said.

In a letter to chief minister Sarbananda Sonowal, APW president Aabhijit Sarma has elaborated a number of allegations to probe that it's an occasion to make money for a section of people.

But is it possible without any political patronage?
