In yet another bizarre incident, a young girl who was believed to have died a couple of days ago surfaced in a police station on Friday. It took place in Nagaon district. Nineteen-year-old Indrani Bora vanished with her boy friend Mukut Ali from Guwahati to Dhubri district on October 17. She was presumed to have kidnapped and killed.

A body was found in Tezpur and a female body with injury marks was found at Bilasipara in Sonitpur district. It was mistakenly identified by the girl's family as that of Indrani. The body was cremated at Kathaldoi village in Nagaon the same day. But taking everyone by surprise Indrani appeared at the Tezpur police station on Friday morning claiming she had stayed at Ali's residence at Trivenee Point. Ali accompanied Indrani to the police station. Indrani and Ali, who was arrested two months ago in a fake currency and stamp paper case and later released on bail, were being questioned by the police.
