The indefinite curfew imposed in Kokrajhar since last night had relaxed for four hours today from 12 noon to 4 pm on its second day of imposition in the district and again resumed after 4 pm in the entire district, said district magistrate in Kokrajhar.

Peoples in Kokrajhar have been facing hardships during curfew as all business, shop, market and road communications were remained closed. During the relaxation of curfew in Kokrajhar peoples were saw busy in shopping and marketing for their daily needs in the bazaars.

Army, police and para military forces have been patrolling on the streets to thwart any bid to monger trouble in the nook and corner of the BTAD areas.

BTC Chief Hagrama Mohilary has condemned the massacre in BTAD region and appealed all sections of community to maintain peace and harmony among society. He has demanded strict actions from government against the involved culprits and punishes them.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
