Is there any politics behind the arrest of Ranjan Daimary? Is it a political conspiracy? Its absolutely correct if NDFB is to be believed. The outfit on Saturday said that Daimary's rearrest was nothing but a political conspiracy which was why despite government affidavit raising no objection to bail, the NDFB boss was denied bail by the TADA court. It alleged that the government and the judiciary are trying to sabotage the hard earned peace process. In a statement, NDFB general secretary B Ohnjalu said that Daimary has never demanded to be released on bail with a pre-condition of peace process. He was released on bail as a result of prolonged negotiation between them and the Centre. 'It is not only strange but also interesting to note the verdict of the TADA court that he had been using the Pre-condition of bail as the pressure tactic and black mailing the state. The Judge simply worked on the basis of the report submitted to the Public Prosecutor by the Home and Political Department and not on the affidavit of the Assam government submitted to the court, said NDFB in the statement.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
