decomposed body of Krishna Kanta Boro (42) who had been missing since August 28 night is found at Fasi Dalong, Bhakatpara near Kalaigaon on August 6 at 1.30 PM. The incident has created sensation in both Udalguri and Darrang district. It needs mention that the Bodo villager of Teteli Bhanguri village under Kalaigaon police station had been missing since August 28 night. According to information, Krishna Kanta Boro was returning home and was missing from Amba Chouk point near Kalaigaon at around 10 pm.

Police and para military search was on to trace him. Police picked up nine suspected persons on September 5 in this connection. Interrogation lead to final arrest of four persons namely -Mossa Ali(23), Tuta Miyan (25), Askar Ali (43) and Jiyarul Haque (25). According to their confession, the victim had been abducted at Teteli Bhanguri village and was brutally killed somewhere near Bhakatpara (5 KM away) and was buried in a paddy field in the same night.

Deputy Commissioner and SP Udalguri have visited the place to supervise the operation. Situation turned to tense after the recovery of the decomposed body. Peace loving people of Udalguri have urged the administration to enforce law and order at any cost.
