Minoti and Sunita performed for a mega fundraising event at the historic Shanmughanada Auditorium in Mumbai recently. The concert was named "Privilege" in aid of the Don Bosco Shelter, Mumbai which takes care of hundreds of street children. Minoti and Sunita shared the stage with a host of other celebrities who performed that day starting from Latino drummer Bondo, to Manasi Scott, Mona Singh and Oscar winning choreographer Longinus. The chief guest for the function was Boman Irani, chief patron of the Don Bosco Shelter.

Father Barnabe head of the Shelter while thanking all the artists made a special mention of the efforts of Sunita and Minoti for contributing towards the event. Sunita has been associated with the Don Bosco children as she conducts music workshops for them.
