China has asked India not to disrupt peace in Arunachal Pradesh a day after a Sukhoi -30 fighter has gone traceless triggering no less tension along the Indo-China border.

In his regular briefing on Wednesday, Chinese foreign ministry spokesman Lu Kang said in Beijing that they do not have any information on the fighter plane which has been missing with two pilots on board hours after it took off from Tezpur.

He said that New Delhi should stop disrupting peace in the eastern border, meaning Arunachal Pradesh which they claimed to have been belonging to Beijing.
