AICC general secretary Rahul Gandhi on Thursday visited Dibrugarh university. But only to be received with black flags. As soon as the icon of the country's youth Congress landed at the varsity campus DUPGSU activists flashed black flags and demonstrated protest against the entry of political figures. But Gandhi shared his views with a section of students inside the Rong ghar auditorium. Before leaving the varsity campus, he talked to the angry students. Then he left for IIT-Guwahati and interacted with the students. Media was not allowed to go inside the campus. Around at 7 in the evening he left for Delhi.

Earlier, the Congress leader landed in Silchar and straightly left for Assam university campus where he was sharing his ideas with 300 students. Gandhi urged the students to join politics to make the country healthy and wealthy.
