Election Commission of India, has decided to give a Voter's Certificate to all the new voters of the age group of 18-19 years for the first time in the country. The certificate would be signed by the EROs (Electorate Registration Officers) of the LACs. The certificates would be very much useful as it would be considered as an important valid document supporting citizenship of India. Election Commission of India has decided to issue the certificates to new and young voters for greater participation for a stronger democracy.
