

Economic blockade has brought life to a standstill in Nagaland

Comments 0

Ritupallab Saikia 22 September 2010 10082 views

The ongoing economic blockade in protest against the atrocities of Nagaland Police over the students of Assam has reached its third day today. More than three hundred trucks carrying amenities to Nagaland had been stranded at Rangajan Tini Ali on NH-39 near Golaghat. Rangajan Tini Ali have virtually turned into an abode of trucks. The ASSU has also imposed the blockade at Bokajan in Karbi Anglong district and Titator and Mariani in Jorhat district. The agitators are determined not to end the agitation at an early date without teaching a hard lesson to Nagaland.

As an aftermath of the ongoing economic blockade, acute crisis of food items and other daily amenities has severely affected Nagaland. On the other hand the Government of Nagaland has instituted a high level enquiry. The enquiry committee will be headed by Jane Alam, the Commissioner and Secretary of the Urban Development, Law and Justice and Labour and Employment Departments of the Government of Nagaland. The committee has been asked to submit its report within 15 days.

Ritupallab Saikia

BY RITUPALLAB SAIKIA

Inter-DPS basketball tournament concludes

Agitators lathicharged at Golaghat

Arrest of ADC demanded over payment of land revenue to Nagaland

Barbaric killing of a jumbo

ULFA cadre nabbed

ON THIS DAY

Road safety awareness programe held in Kokrajhar

Believers Eastern Church Satgaon Mission Diocese Cleanliness Drive

Why has Egg become Danger for Manipur?

Orthopaedic doctors to conduct media OPD clinic

Believers Eastern Church Satgaon Mission Diocese Organises Swachta Hi Sewa
