

Eerie silence in Dhula as curfew remains

Comments 0

AT News 11 January 2018 9820 views

MONGOLDOI: An eerie silence prevails in Dhola a day after the semi urban area in Darrang district witnessed a shocking incident of police firing where two people were killed on Wednesday.

Army, police and para military forces are fanning in the nook and corner of the hyper sensitive area where the local residents mostly, have been keeping themselves confined to their homes.

Shops and markets, schools and colleges. banks and offices which closed suddenly on Wednesday are not opening on Thursday because of the indefinite curfew clamp to bring the situation under control.

Senior police and civil officials have been constantly monitoring the situation which deteriorated after the police firing where two protesters were killed as they clashed with the policemen in protest against the custodial death of local worker inside the police station.

PWD minister Parinal Suklavidya is on a day long visit to the trouble torn area in the morning where he is expected to visit the family members of the two deceased. He is further taking stock of the law and order situation with upper Assam commissioner Mukti Gogoi, IGP M Agarwalla, DC, SP and others.

On the other hand, the local Congress leaders and activists are all set to stage a dharna in front of the DC office in Mangaldoi demanding Justice to the two protestors who were killed in police firing.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

BY AT NEWS

Israeli Journalist Gideon Levy Receives 2026 PEC Award

Shyntor Festival to return to Shyntorbulia in December

AUWJ urges Assam to match Bengal journalist welfare measures

Hiren Gohain Slams Akhil Gogoi Over "Self-Serving" Politics Amid Congress-Raijor Dal Rift

UN recognises campaign against child marriage with global day declaration

ON THIS DAY

Hagrama tsunami in BTAD, UPPL, BJP at a loss

Golok Samman 2023 Announced: Four Young Honourees Recognized

Lokdarshan: A Vibrant Folk Dance Extravaganza in Udalguri

Manas National Park Reopens for Visitors, World Tourism Day Celebration Planned

Webinar held: women entrepreneurship and women empowerment

RELATED

ABSU burns copies of 'Hamkoshar Parishista' over Bodo script issue

Tension persists in Bihubar after former paramilitary personnel's killing

A heartfelt tribute to poet Anis Uz Zaman

Tension grips Bihubar after youth social worker's killing

New Delhi BRICS Summit: Hoping for a Permanent Indian Presence in the UNSC
