

Eerie silence in Raha

Comments 0

AT News 16 July 2016 Updated 16 Jul 9036 views

An eerie silence prevails at Raha in Nagaoan district a day after a local boy was killed in police firing on a group of protesters who demanded AIIMS in the area.

Several local organizations have strongly come out in protest against the firing incident where identified as Mintu Deori was killed. Local shops and markets have refused to open in the area. The Government offices have registered a thin attendance on Saturday.

But the local organizations and individuals are stick to the demands for the proposed AIIMS in Raha.

On the other hand, 20 others who sustained injury in the police-protester clash have been undergoing treatment in the hospitals. According to government sources, the protesters went on a rampage and smashed many government vehicles where the hoot out took place. But the protesters told Assam Times that more than 50 of them sustained injury.

The situation started boiling in the morning when more than 3,000 people blocked the National Highway No 37 here to intensify the demand for AIIMS at Raha instead of Changsari.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

BY AT NEWS

Israeli Journalist Gideon Levy Receives 2026 PEC Award

Shyntor Festival to return to Shyntorbulia in December

AUWJ urges Assam to match Bengal journalist welfare measures

Hiren Gohain Slams Akhil Gogoi Over "Self-Serving" Politics Amid Congress-Rajjor Dal Rift

UN recognises campaign against child marriage with global day declaration

ON THIS DAY

Arms recovered

Essay competition for students

Programme on pursuing career after graduation held at Doomdooma

Daoharu Mungkhlong trophy match from Oct 1

BTC special session discusses development

RELATED

ABSU burns copies of 'Hamkoshar Parishista' over Bodo script issue

Tension persists in Bihubar after former paramilitary personnel's killing

A heartfelt tribute to poet Anis Uz Zaman

Tension grips Bihubar after youth social worker's killing

New Delhi BRICS Summit: Hoping for a Permanent Indian Presence in the UNSC
